MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Operations

FROM: Director of Central Intelligence

1. I am pleased with the assignment of DDI personnel into DDO positions. I urge continued location of DDI analysts wherever possible overseas serving as analysts, reports officers, or, for that matter,

[REDACTED]

25X1

2. I would like to see, however, greater use of DDI talent in higher graded positions such as Deputy Chiefs of Stations or Chiefs of Stations. I know that we cannot do this on a widespread basis, but I am confident that DDI personnel in management positions could serve very well in [REDACTED]

To this end, I would like your suggestions on where DDI personnel could be placed within the DDO and our stations during calendar year 1986.

3. You might also consider assigning DDI personnel in the front offices of the various area divisions where the analysts could not only expand their area knowledge but also develop a sense of the operational environment which could serve them later on in their careers.

4. I would welcome any thoughts you have on where DDO personnel could serve within the DDI.
